William Revello

Graduated in Economics and as a Systemic counsellor, William has worked for Compagnia di San Paolo since 2002. In 2003 he joined the Ufficio Pio and currently oversees 9 social projects working with vulnerable groups. He coordinates 20 professionals and around 130 volunteers dedicated to help people at risk of social exclusion and economic poverty. He does this with a dedicated budget of about 9 million euros. Since January 2010, William has been a member of the Inter sectorial Steering Committee (Comune di Torino and Compagnia di San Paolo) for the implementation of welfare programmes. He is also the co-creator of three key initiatives of Ufficio Pio: Trapezio - to combat social exclusions of families and individuals; Percorsi - asset building and support of university studies; Agenzia Sociale per il Lavoro - active employment policies. Previously, William worked at the Unione Industriale of Turin as Secretary of the SME sector.
